

SYNOPSIS

The story traces elements from a refugee camp in Africa to the grey humdrum of everyday life in a Danish provincial town. The lives of two Danish families cross each other, and an extraordinary but risky friendship comes into bud. But loneliness, frailty and sorrow lie in wait. Soon, friendship transforms into a dangerous alliance and a breathtaking pursuit in which life is at stake. Susanne Bier's new feature film is a drama about the destruction of the idyll and the personal choice between revenge and pacifism.

SYNOPSIS

Philip, an Englishman living in Denmark, is a lonely, middle-aged widower and estranged single father. Ida is a Danish hairdresser, recuperating from chemotherapy, who has just learned that her husband is leaving her for a woman half his age from the accounts department. The fates of these two bruised souls are about to intertwine as they embark for Italy to attend the wedding of his son, Patrick, to her daughter, Astrid. It is a film about the simple yet profound pains and joys of moving on - and forward - with your life.

SYNOPSIS

Andreas, a young detective, juggles a crying newborn at home and an unruly partner, Simon, at work. Called to a domestic disturbance, they find drug dealer Tristan and his abused girlfriend, Sanne. A disturbing discovery shakes Andreas, pushing him toward his family, until tragedy strikes. Desperate, Andreas makes a drastic choice that blurs moral boundaries, leaving it to the reckless Simon to bring things back into balance.
